STORY STAGE

3M Dot Bands

3 M Dot Bands a premier professional theatre group, active for more than 12 years, based in Jaipur, the group has staged many successful theatre festivals & productions.

We believe that any art form in this world is function of three M's;

Man - the creator

Moment - Big-Bang in life of creator when creation happens... is destiny's gift

Milieu - the environment of self expression

Dot - represents Technology & Management... introduces creator to masses

Bands - when all these blended together... life is full of colours.

3m dot bands now with its past experience and adding itself with young thespians of Pink City takes a step ahead to provide exposure to Jaipur theatre through this festival. Further we hope that this combination of Connoisseurs and fledglings working together for the furtherance of theatre will provide a push to the existing situation.

"UNTITLED"

A Solo by Lushin Dubey

15th December

Directed by:
Arvind Gaur

Music by:
Dr. Sangeeta Gaur

Production: Theatre World

The play is based on Vijaydan Detha's story "Nyari Nyari Maryada" and Dario Fo's short play "Medea".

"Medea is one of the most horrific and powerful Greek tragedies, a play of dark revenge and slaughter and is dominated by the voice of "Medea", the foreign princess who aided Jason, her husband, in the past, and whom he now spurns for younger women. She retaliates by murdering her own children... And therefore, in a sense "Killing" him and herself.

"Be a good wife and a good mother and you will have space to live in my house," says Medea's husband, a character from Greek mythological, who kills her own children to take revenge on her husband, who had married a much younger girl. "Respect him and love him, and he will let you live in his house," said the wise old nurse. Medea's crisis was, she had to make a choice, if she wanted to remain a proud woman or become a wise woman, by sealing her lips, and let everything be, as it had been.

A parallel tale from Rajasthan, written by Vijaydan Detha, narrates a tale of a king's court, where a mehatrani (sweeper woman) comes, asking for justice, because her twelve year old daughter had been raped by the pundit of the court, who was, in fact, her father. The Raja, the Diwan and even the court jester silence their women by telling them that man need to have change of taste. One day, it is the Rani who calls the court to declare, she will get justice for the sweeper woman's daughter. She declares to the court that even she had changed her taste and the play dwelt on precisely this query -- what is women's maryada.

Museum... of species in danger

16th December

by Rasika Agashe

Production: Being Association, Mumbai

It was December 2012 when people were campaigning all over the country in all possible ways after the Delhi rape case. We had our theatre to use as a medium for protest. When we started to explore the issue for making this play happen, we happened to explore ourselves more than anything else. It was then when we realised that being a woman is much more than being just a female. Having started to explore women right from mythology to today's women, we found that many things, good or bad, desirable or undesirable, follow the same lines even today. If a woman still experiences the same things, though in different faces, why not document it or preserve it in a museum?

Happy Ranajit's Genuine Liars

Production: Unicorn Actors Studio

Moral values are dying, old social norms are decaying, relationships are cracking, in such a changing society where every individual is in search of identity, equality and liberty man and woman are still engaged in solving the unsolved mystery between them, the mystery of power, possession, violence, brutality and also of pleasure and passion they are genuine yet lie to each other.

This play is a realistic play inspired from paintings of Pablo Picasso which makes you think about love, ego, commitment, the institution of marriage and the power game between man and woman. This play revolves around a married couple and two old lovers and a prostitute interpreting life, love and relationship in their own way and talks about the humour and complexities of human relationship.

Rafi Shabbir's Khala Kamaal Ki by Farrukh Sher Khan

The play tells the story of Khala, a woman who makes helping others her life's objective. Known for her honesty, generosity and integrity, she is loved by all. Khala is surrounded by other characters who are drawn from life and can be easily identified with. Some of them are caught up in difficulties and due to their mishandling of their respective situations, they end up embroiling her in problems and complications.

The character of Khala is one that rejects all barriers of caste and religion and lives her life in the spirit of the fast disappearing Ganga Jamuni tradition that Bhopal was once known for. However, in her we do not see a representative of a particular city; rather we see a woman who belongs to every city, every mohallah, every community - recognizable, brave, loved and incomitable.

जैसा कि नाम से ध्वनित होत है, यह रामकथा पर आधारित कोई पारम्परिक रामलीला नहीं है। बल्कि रामकथा का इस नाटक में एक प्रतीत के रूप में इस्तमाल किया गया है। एक मजदूर बस्ती के कुछ लोग जिनमें हिन्दु और मुसलमान दोनों सम्प्रदायों के लोग हैं, मिल-जुलकर रामलीला करने का निश्चय करते हैं। उन गरीब और धर्म निरपेक्ष, लोगों के लिए रामलीला का मंचन कोई धार्मिक अनुष्ठान नहीं, लोकानुरजन का एक साधन है। थियेटर की एक विधा है।

शहर के दोनों सम्प्रदायों के स्वयंभू ठेकेदारों को यह रामलीला गले नहीं उतरती क्योंकि दोनों की नजर उस देशकीमती जमीन पर है, जहां रामलीला होनी है। बत्त, इसी स्वार्थ के चलते रामलीला में जबरन धर्म का प्रवेश हो जाता है। गरीब शहर में साम्प्रदायिक विद्वेष भड़क जाता है अन्ततः दंगे हो जाते हैं। जिन्हें धर्मनिरपेक्ष गरीब मारा जाता है और स्वार्थी अमीर की जीत होती है।

AMBEDKAR AUR GANDHI

by Arvind Gaur

Production: Asmita Theatre

The play brings to us the long drawn debate between Gandhiji and Ambedkar. Apart from concentrating on the correspondence between Gandhiji and Ambedkar that led to the Poona pact, the playwright underlines the benefits that Ambedkar's proposals will bring to the lower castes and Gandhiji's concerns regarding the removal of division between the upper and lower cast Hindus.

A two hour hilarious monologue performed by RAKESH BEDI

Off Stage

Translation: Vasudha Sahastrabudhe

Adaptation: Rakesh Bedi

Music: Kuldip Singh

MESSAGE is a two act play, in fact a monologue in which RAKESH BEDI portrays several characters which can be seen vividly as the play progresses.

Written by one of the most prolific and hard hitting writers of modern India, Mr. VIJAY TENDULKAR, MESSAGE tries to peep into the under belly of today's society through the escapades of HAPPY KUMAR who comes to join the film industry to become an actor but unfortunately becomes the fourth assistant director of a film maker called KOI HI who specialises in the snake and sex genre of cinema.

With his sensitivity gone for a toss, he becomes worn out and disillusioned and finally lands up in a ladies gym as an instructor, But here too his days are numbered but Happy learns the intricacies of MESSAGE and becomes a famous masseur.

He meets many other interesting characters during his life journey. May it be cunning lawyer, or the unworthy politician, or his funny P.A. Pandey, or the woman of his life, or the heroine, or the heroine's mother, who almost molests him, Rakesh Bedi plays 24 different characters deftly in his inimitable comic style in a span of two hours with a good dose of humour.

More than one hundred and fifty performances of MESSAGE have been rendered in India and abroad.

एक था गधा उर्फ अलादाद खां एक हास्य व्यंग्य नाटक है जिसे हिंदी के मशहूर व्यंग्यकार शरद जोशी ने लिखा है। 'एक था गधा' एक ऐसे राज्य की कहानी है जिसमें एक सनकी नवाब शासन करता है। एक दिन एक घोड़े का गधा मर जाता है और वह उसकी याद में रो रहा होता है। तभी वहां से शहर कोतवाल गुजरता है और कुछ मनचले उससे कह देते हैं कि एक नामी आदमी 'अलादाद खां' मर गये हैं। वह इस बात की खबर नवाब को देते हैं और नवाब ऐलान कर देता है कि मरहूम अलादाद खां की शवदाता महल से निकलेगी।

इधर शाही मातम की तैयारियां हो चुकी होती हैं उधर नवाब को पता चलता है कि अलादाद खां नाम का गधा मरा है आदमी नहीं मरा तो वह बहुत गुस्से में हो जाता है। तभी कोतवाल अलादाद खां नाम के एक शरीफ आदमी को पकड़ कर लाता है और नवाब देश के नाम पर उस आदमी को मार देता है और उसकी शवदाता निकालता है। हास्य व्यंग्य का यह नाटक अपने मजेदार संवादों के कारण खूब लोकप्रिय है। नाटक में करीब 25 कलाकार काम करते हैं।

A 'Fair' Affair by Pritesh Sodha

Aakash and Reva Kulkarni is a happily married couple, and so is Sagar and Ketki Mahajan. During a conference, Aakash and Sagar meet and become friends. Aakash invites Sagar for dinner at his place and both the couples meet for the first time. Being food lovers, Aakash and Reva cook a wonderful dinner for their new friends. But there is a twist. Their new friends have come for something more than just the dinner; Sagar and Ketki want someone, who don't know them, but should judge them and their marriage, as they both are about to separate. And before they separate, they need an opinion from the other happily married couple i.e. Aakash and Reva.

While judging them, Aakash and Reva start observing their marriage too and a fun riot begins. Now husbands are on one side and wives are on the other. And the dinner table, well, it becomes a battleground.

A sweet, salty, sour, sizzling and bitter story of two couples.

Bheeshm Sahni's Khoon Ka Rishta by Sunita Tiwari Nagpal

Chacha mangalsen is a poor middle class man who lives with his elder brother from last 6 years. He is totally alone and workless as his elder brother provides him all facilities in the cost of taking care of his property. Babuji his elder brother, Bharjaayji his bhabhi, manorama his bhateiji is not feeling very attached to him and they sometime treated him like outsider. But his bhateija veerji is very sensible and with deep attachment he treat him like his father. On the auspicious ceremony of veerji engagement chacha mangalsen is very excited to attend it but babuji and bhabhi is not interested to take him there. even veerji wants this ceremony very simple and sober, but chacha mangalsen is insulted in front of relatives and servants by babuji just because of not doing his work properly... veerji felt guilty and he could not hide his love and respect towards chacha ji and he present a proposal that he want chacha mangalsen attend this ceremony. Babuji and bhabhi doesn't like it all but very helplessly they took him there at girls place ceremony is on full swing everybody enjoys and as per veerji call they did his engagement in one and half rupees with silver tray and 3 bowls, 3 spoons... they come back in excitement nobody bother each other. But scene totally changed when one silver spoon is misplaced and not only each and every member of house but veerji it self insulted chacha mangalsen in front of everybody. This very moment all love, respect care and belief was left forever and meanness took place....story ends with lost faith and love of a pure and genuine person. A heart touching story of today's society, where we are surrounded with selfishness.

इस नाटक का कथानक बहुत ही साधारण एवं विश्वसनीय है। सूरजपुर नामक एक एक काल्पनिक प्रदेश में कार्यरत कोतवाल का आकस्मिक देहान्त हो जाता है। सूरजपुर का राजा प्रधान को कोतवाल के खाली पद की पूर्ति का आदेश देता है और प्रधान चयन प्रक्रिया की अनदेखी कर अपने नालायक और नाकारा साले को नौकरी पर रख लेता है चयन प्रक्रिया के अनुसार हवलदार को कमोन्त कर कोतवाल बनाना था। परन्तु ऐसा नहीं होने पर हवलदार अपनी प्रेमिका मैनावती के साथ मिलकर नये कोतवाल को फँसाने की योजनाएँ बनाता है। योजना के अनुसार मैनावती अपने रूढ़ यौवन और नाच गाने से नये कोतवाल को जाल में फँसा कर अपनी कई इच्छाएँ पूरी करवाती है। मैनावती कोतवाल से राजा के आनूषण और जवाहरात चोरी करवाती है और अंत में राजा का छपरी पलंग चोरी करवा कर उसे फँसा देती है।
